

SPEAKING #5

Part 1: Interview (4-5 minutes)

Examiner: Can you tell me about your family and the role they play in your life?

Examiner: How often do you spend time with your family members?

Examiner: What kind of activities do you enjoy doing together as a family?

Examiner: Are there any special traditions or celebrations that your family observes?

Part 2: Long Turn (1 minute preparation, 1-2 minutes speaking)

Examiner: In this part of the test, I'm going to give each of you three photographs. I would like you to talk about your photographs on your own for about a minute and also answer a question about your partner's photographs.

(Candidate A) It's your turn first. Here are your photos. They show different family gatherings. I would like you to compare and contrast two of the photographs and explain which event you think would be the most memorable for the family involved and why they decided to meet in this way.

Which event do you think would be the most memorable for the family involved?

Why did they decide to meet in this way?

Examiner: (Candidate B) Which family gathering do you think looks the most enjoyable?

(Candidate B) It's your turn now. Your photographs show various family activities at the cinema. I would like you to compare and contrast two of the photographs and discuss which film genre the family might be watching and why they chose that particular movie.

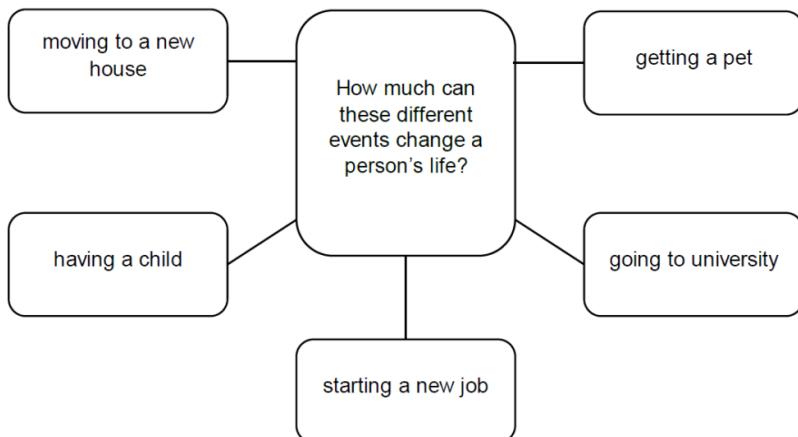

Which film genre the family might be watching?

Why did they choose that particular movie?

Part 3: Collaborative Task (2-3 minutes)

Examiner: Now, I'd like both of you to discuss some political issues together. Here are some topics related to politics and government. Take a moment to look at them, and then discuss which ones you find the most important and why.

Which event do you think is the most life changing for someone's life?

Part 4: Discussion (4-5 minutes)

Examiner: Why do you think some families prefer to watch movies at home rather than going to the cinema?

Examiner: In what ways do streaming services impact the cinema-going habits of families?

Examiner: Do you think the film industry should produce more movies specifically targeted at family audiences? Why or why not?

Examiner: How can the cinema experience be enhanced to attract more families to watch movies together?
