

SPEAKING #12

Part 1: Interview (4-5 minutes)

Examiner: How important do you think sports and physical fitness are in today's society?

Examiner: In your opinion, are people becoming more health-conscious and fitness-oriented?

Examiner: Can you name a specific sports or fitness-related issue that you find particularly important today?

Examiner: What actions do you personally take to maintain your physical fitness and well-being?

Examiner: Have you ever participated in sports events or fitness challenges?

Part 2: Long Turn (1 minute preparation, 1-2 minutes speaking)

Examiner: In this part, I will give each of you three photographs related to sports and fitness.

Candidate A:

How do they showcase the benefits of participating in sports and fitness activities?

Which of these activities do you find the most appealing, and why?

Candidate B, describe your photographs and explain how they highlight the importance of sports and fitness in society.

Examiner: Candidate B, it's your turn now. Please describe your photographs and explain:

How do the people feel in these pictures?

How can people incorporate such activities into their daily lives?

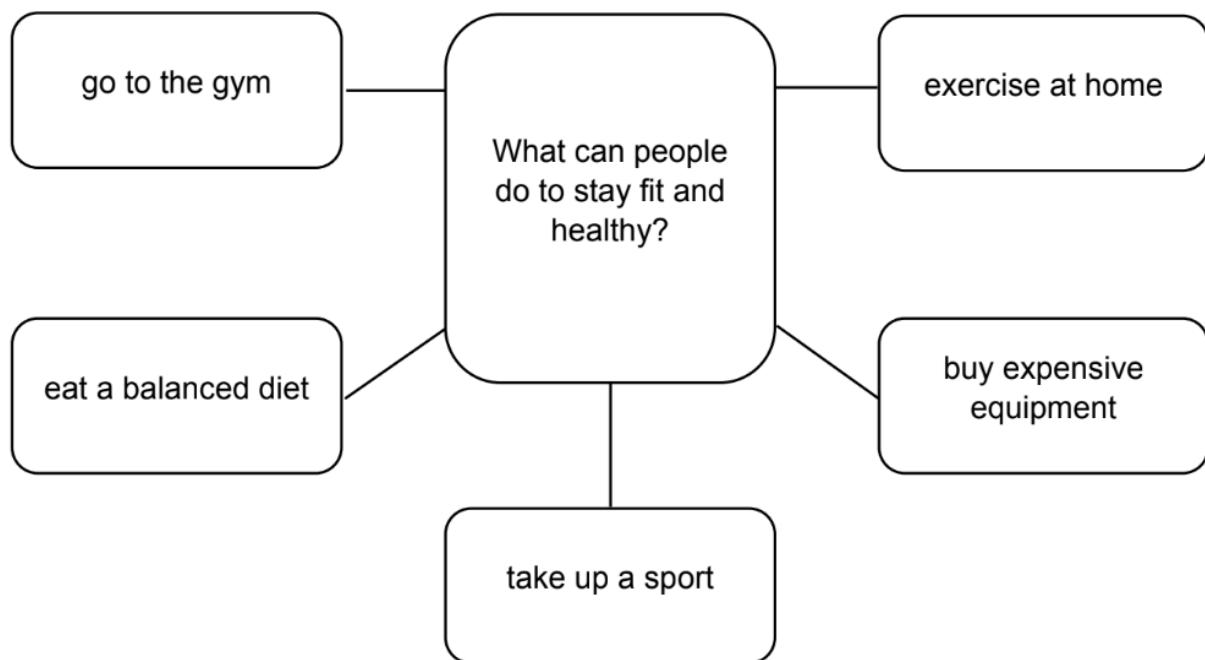

Candidate A, what do you think about Candidate B's photographs? How do they relate to the mental well-being aspects of sports and fitness?

Part 3: Collaborative Task (2-3 minutes)

Examiner: Now, both of you will discuss sports and fitness together. Here are some topics related to sports and fitness. Take a moment to look at them and then discuss which ones you consider the most crucial for overall well-being and why.

Part 4: Discussion (4-5 minutes)

Examiner: Let's talk about the role of schools and educational institutions in promoting sports and physical fitness. How much emphasis should they place on these activities?

Candidate B/A: What's your take on this matter?

Examiner: Some argue that the fitness industry often promotes unrealistic body standards. What are your thoughts on this?

Examiner: Do you believe that sports can be a unifying force among different communities and cultures, or do they sometimes lead to division? Why?

Candidate B/A: What's your perspective on this issue?

Examiner: What initiatives can be taken to encourage more people to engage in sports and fitness activities, especially those who are currently less active?

Examiner: Overall, do you think societies are doing enough to promote sports and fitness, considering the growing concerns about sedentary lifestyles? Why or why not?

Candidate B/A: What's your opinion on this matter?
